THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1863.

By Telegraph.

We have a short dispatch this morning, and are also informed by the Yreka operator "that on the 4th inst., no dispatches came over the Eastern line, and on the 5th on account of a severe storm, he was unable to get any news from Sacramento." The intelligence from Vicksburg is still encouraging, Gen. Grant still holding his position and bombarding the fortifications, causing the rebels to seek shelter in excavations under ground, and we are gratified to know that some of the rebels have at last been made to "hunt their holes."

The annual election has taken place in Virginia, the voting being confined we presume mainly to Richmond and the rebel camps, as there cannot be enough voters in other parts of the State to make a show even. Extra Billy Smith is again Governor of a fragment of what once was the "Old Dominion," and of which he was before the Chief Executive, some fifteen years ago, we believe.

Fernando Wood and a few other traitors, have been airing their treason in New York, and passed resolutions, such as are consistent with their infernal treachery.

Jefferson on Slavery.

Democrats have a vast deal to say about the sagacity and purity of the author of the Declaration of Independence, and even the peace men boast that he was the founder of the great democratic party, and the father of their political faith. Of course, then, they will not call us abolitionists for quoting the following which is taken from one of his letters, and comes as near to the position of the abused radicals of the present day as anything that can be written. Indeed, we can hardly understand how a pro-slavery democrat, after reading it, can even tolerate the name of Jefferson, and would suppose that he would class him with Garrison, Sumner, and the "rabid abolitionists," whose names are hardly ever spoken without invoking curses upon them. Here is the extract:

With what execration should the Statesman be loaded who, permitting one-half of the citizens thus to trample on the other half, transforms those into despots and these into enemies. Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, and that his justice cannot sleep forever. Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these people are to be free. What a stupendous, what an incomprehensible machine is man, who can endure toil, famine, stripes, imprisonment, and death itself, in vindication of his own liberty, and the next moment be deaf to all those motives whose power supported him through his trials, and inflict on his fellow men a bondage one hour of which is fraught with more misery than ages of that which he rose in rebellion to oppose. When the measure of their tears shall be full, when their groans shall have involved Heaven itself in darkness, doubtless a God of justice will awaken to their distress, and, by diffusing light and liberality among their oppressors, or at length by his exterminating thunder, manifest His attention to the things of this world, and show that they are not left to a blind fatality.

RAPID GROWTH.—The new town at the Umatilla Landing is said to be thriving wonderfully. Less than a month ago, there were only three buildings in the place; now there are more than twenty substantial structures, and new houses are being erected as fast as the lumber can be furnished. All the lots on main street have been sold, and those which a few days ago sold for fifty dollars are worth five hundred and rising daily in value. The street is filled with teams and pack trains, loading for the mines, and all is bustle and energy. Of course, somebody is making money, and perhaps some others will have a different story to tell after a while, but while the excitement lasts it is all rosy.

The Dalles papers state that Jackson Engine Company No. 1 of that place has accepted the invitation of Columbian No. 3 of this city, to join in the celebration of the coming Fourth of July here, and will be on hand "armed and equipped as the law directs."—We are glad of it, and are sure that our citizens will give the guests a cordial and patriotic welcome.

A FELINE SPECULATION.—One day last week a gentleman of the web-foot persuasion arrived at the Dalles, having with him a cargo of cats. Start not, gentle reader, a consignment of full grown tabbies. The speculator had heard that in California, in early days, cats commanded $10 each; by parity of reasoning, he thought that inasmuch as Boise is a second California, an invoice of cats safely landed there would pay. Accordingly he had a number of boxes fitted up in menagerie style, and gathering up all the loose cats in the Valley, he started out on his feline speculation. Wagon, cats, and all reached the Dalles by the steamer Iris, in safety, and the next morning our web-foot friend started out in high glee for the new El Dorado. He had driven out but a few miles on the Boise road when an accident occurred which blasted all his hopes. The couplings of his wagon were rather frail, and in going down the hill there was a general smash up, in which the cages were stove in, and every mother's son of a cat escaped. This was on the main road, and for several days back the passers by have been unable to account for the presence of droves of cats. They have here the explanation, and now know the history of a cat speculation, and how our web-foot friend "came to sorrow."—Mountaineer.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST,
Dates to June 5th.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Richmond papers of the 1st and 2d inst., state that Vallandigham is still at Shelbyville.

The Virginia election resulted in the choice of Extra Billy Smith for Governor. Letcher was defeated for Congress by J. G. Baldwin. Alec R. Boteler was defeated by Holliday. Price is probably elected Lieut. Governor over Imboger.

A Peace Convention was held at the Cooper Institute yesterday afternoon. The principal speaker was Fernando Wood. The resolutions declare fealty to the Constitution and sovereignty of the people; that under the Constitution there is no power to coerce a State by military force; that it was contrary to the Constitution and should be put an end to; that the attempt to do way with the provisions of the Constitution which point out how crimes are to be punished is a high-handed violation of the sworn duties of our rulers. The claims of dictatorial and unlicensed military power and the trial of citizens by court-martial are monstrous and inexcusable; that the dogma of unlimited submission to the executive bench of Government, is unworthy of American citizens; that they protest against the cowardly, despotic, inhumane and accursed act of the banishment of Vallandigham; that they recommend the suspension of hostilities and the holding of a Convention to settle the manner of reconciliation of the contending sections, and appointing times for calling future Conventions of the radical democracy.

CHICAGO, June 4.—In accordance with a call issued this morning an immense meeting assembled this evening at the Court-house square. It was addressed by gentlemen of both political parties, who counseled obedience to the law but denounced the order of Burnside suppressing the Times newspaper as arbitrary and despotic. The militia were ordered under arms this morning as a precautionary measure, but it was not needed. The meeting passed off quietly.

CHICAGO, June 5.—A telegram from Gen. Burnside to-night says the President has revoked his order suppressing the Chicago Times.

Gen. Burnside yesterday issued a lengthy order, directing his Provost Marshal General at once to institute an investigation into the cases of all citizens now confined in his department, and in all such cases as do not clearly show premeditated disloyalty on the part of the accused, or when he desires to atone by future good conduct, will be released by taking the oath of allegiance.

A letter from Gen. Hunter to Jeff. Davis, just published, says, the United States flag must protect all its defenders, white or black. Several negroes in the employ of the Government in Western Department, have been cruelly murdered by your authority, and others sold into slavery. Every outrage of this kind against the laws of war and humanity which may take place in this Department, shall be followed by the immediate execution of the highest rank in any position, man for man. The executions will take place for every one murdered or sold into slavery worse than death. On your authority will rest the responsibility of inaugurating this barbarous policy, and you will be held responsible in this world and the one to come for all the blood shed.

MURFREESBORO, June 4.—The enemy were receiving heavy reinforcements yesterday and to-day, coming through Liberty Gap, Shelbyville and Fosterville roads. Heavy infantry columns appeared on the turnpike to-day. They briskly engaged Carlin's brigade, which was posted five miles out on the Middleton road. The 4th regiment got into a skirmish, losing one killed and six wounded. On Salem turnpike the enemy were driven back by Little's brigade. Desertors who came in this evening say that the rebels are under the impression that Rosecrans is reinforcing Grant. The greatest activity prevails throughout the army.

A telegram from Franklin says that the 85th Indiana, stationed there, was attacked to-day by rebel cavalry. At last accounts, fighting was going on with some probability that the enemy will be captured.

CAIRO, June 5.—A Vicksburg letter of May 30th says: A deserter reports affairs in the city as growing desperate. About 18,000 effective men are there, two-thirds of whom are kept on the fortifications night and day, and are not allowed to leave for one instant on any pretext. The remaining force is held as a reserve to strengthen any threatening point at a moment's notice. Their rations consist of three-fourths of a pound of meat and the same quantity of corn meal. Gens. Pemberton, Reynolds, Lee, Stephenson and others are in the city. Most of the sick had left the city before the investment. Those who remain have excavated caves to live in night and day. Valuable merchandise has also been stored away from fears of confiscation. The poor are generally in their houses. Over 100 women and children have been killed by the bombardment. Gen. Pemberton believes that the rations will hold out thirty days. The cavalry horses have been turned loose and driven towards our lines owing to lack of forage. There was ammunition enough to last sixty days, with the single exception of gun caps, which were scarce. All confidently expected that superior efforts would be made by those outside to raise the siege. They consider Vicksburg the strongest place in the Confederacy. If we take it they will abandon all hopes of successfully defending any Southern city.

This morning sharp cannonading was kept up without intermission nearly three hours. New batteries had been lately put in position. One hundred and fifty guns were pointed at the city at daylight, firing rapid beyond belief along the whole line, averaging one shot per second. The roar of the heavy siege guns was awful. The earth was shaken by the concussions. At present there is a lull.

The Fourth.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:—Through the columns of your paper we would inform the citizens of Multnomah county residing east of the Willamette river, that the Committee of Arrangements have selected Mount Tabor as the place for celebrating the coming Fourth of July, the exercises commencing at ten o'clock A. M. All Union-loving citizens are invited, and requested to bring their wives, sons and daughters, and also something nice to eat, which will be spread on a common table, and all feast together—in return for which we promise an intellectual feast; and we doubt not all will return home better patriots than when they came.

PLYMPTON KELLY,
Chairman of Committee.

THE RUSH FOR BOISE.—All the loose men around town have long since left for Boise. Recently the excitement has extended to our more sober citizens, and scarce a day now passes that does not witness the departure of some of our old "stand byes" for the new El Dorado. Should the depleting process be continued much longer, our city promises to be depopulated.—Mountaineer.

The steamer from San Francisco is past due.

THEIR LAST HOPE.—The Rebels have just one hope left, the hope that the North will become divided. They have virtually abandoned the idea of conquering a peace by their own unaided efforts. They know that if the struggle is to be decided by the dread umpirage of physical prowess, their cause is lost. They are well aware that if we put forth our entire strength—that if we remain unshaken in our resolve to put down the Rebellion and save the Union by force of arms—they are inevitably doomed. They understand quite as well as we do, that every day the war goes on, the goal of success is removed farther and farther from them—that every day the prospect grows darker, and the fortunes of the sham Confederacy more desperate.

But if they could only succeed in fomenting divisions among us, and induce us to strike at ourselves instead of striking at them, they see an easy road to victory. Hence their secret plottings with Northern Traitors.—Hence the army of emissaries they have sent into our midst to poison and pervert the public mind. Hence their efforts to seduce the Northwest. This is indeed their last card. Failing here, they fail in everything. The Richmond Despatch, the most moderate of the Rebel prints, confesses as much. Hear it:—

"The only means of securing our own independence is the sure one of increasing the discord among our enemies AND RENDERING CERTAIN THE BREAKING UP OF THE FEDERAL UNION."

"The only means of securing our own independence is the sure one of increasing the discord among our enemies." This is frank and ingenuous. It gives us the Rebel programme condensed and crystalized. We know just what they aim at—just what they are striving to bring about.

Hereafter, let it be understood, then, that those among us who seek to distract and divide are in the service, and, probably, in the pay of the Rebel Chiefs. Let it be understood that those who rail against "this wicked war" are only repeating, parrot-like, the formula taught them by their Southern employers. Let it be understood that those who counsel "Peace-on-any-terms" are simply playing the part of attorneys for the Secession leaders; and that their holy horror of "Federal usurpations," &c., &c., is purely professional.

The hopes of the enemy based upon our quarrels are doomed to disappointment. Two months ago it looked as though their machinations might succeed. But the "sober second thought of the people" has come to their rescue. The old conviction that the Union must and shall be saved has returned, confirmed and strengthened. The determination to put down the Rebellion, and wage the war to a triumphant end, grows stronger and stronger every day. The people of the loyal States don't mean there shall be any such a word as fail in the National vocabulary. They know that they are fighting the battle of liberty the world over, and they mean to fight the good fight to the end.—Albany Journal.

NOTICE.
A. J. BUTLER,
Pioneer Hatter,

WOULD RESPECTFULLY call the attention of the public generally, and to some of the citizens of Portland particularly, that he DOES NOT deal in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, &c., &c., but he does desire to inform them that he is a Legitimate Practical Hatter,

and has served a regular apprenticeship to become so. We deal in nothing but

HATS AND CAPS,

and have them in

Every Variety, Style, Color, Shape & Price

to be found in a first class Hatter's Store.

In selling a gentleman a Hat, we do not permit him to wear the same, if it be a Silk Hat, out of our establishment until the package creases have been removed; and if it be a stiff Hat, until it has been moulded and shaped to suit the particular formation of his head.

We do not ask a foreign price, expecting to fall to one-half the original price asked. BUT ONE PRICE and no abatement is our way of doing business.

That principle being understood, we solicit the patronage of the public generally.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To the Honorable Circuit Court of Multnomah County:

We the Grand Jury empanelled for the June term, would respectfully present the following report: There has been presented before the Grand Jury six cases for their consideration, of which they found five true bills.

The Grand Jury have visited the city and county jails, also the penitentiary, and would beg leave to state, we found the city and county jails clean and well kept, at the same time, as a body, the Jury think they are both very insufficient and insecure, particularly the county jail, and would respectfully recommend that a suitable county jail be provided at the earliest practicable opportunity.

The Penitentiary we found clean and in very good order; the necessities and comfort of the prisoners are as well provided for as could be expected in any similar establishment. There are now in the Penitentiary twenty-four convicts; fourteen of whom are employed in brick making, six making saddles, two cooking and two sick. We found a large number of saddle-trees on hand, made by the convicts, which appeared to be well made, and are a credit to the makers.

HENRY LAW, Foreman.

There being no further business before the Grand Jury, they were discharged.

A FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.—A serious runaway occurred yesterday afternoon on the road leading up the river about two miles South of this city. Mr. Sutton and Mr. Quimby were driving a spirited span of horses, and as they were about crossing a small bridge Mr. Sutton, who had hold of the lines, thinking the horses were about to jump off the bridge, became frightened, dropt the lines and sprang out of the buggy. In the action the seat of the buggy was broken down, and before Mr. Quimby could catch the lines they were jerked out of the buggy beyond his reach and the team was free to run at will. Mr. Q. was carried some sixty or seventy yards when he succeeded in disengaging himself from the buggy, not however until he had received several severe bruises, but no bones broken. The team ran on up the road some two miles and were stopped. But the most serious result of this accident was caused by the span of horses frightening an ox-team in the flight, causing it to run off also, upsetting the wagon, which fell on the driver and horribly mashed his right arm, breaking it in some four or five places, leaving the bones sticking out two or three inches. As soon as Mr. Bennett, Mr. Quimby's senior partner, heard of the accident, he dispatched a carriage out after the wounded men and they were immediately brought in and every medical assistance rendered that could be. Mr. Quimby, not being seriously hurt, will soon recover, but the unfortunate ox-driver, whose name we did not learn, will in all probability lose his arm.

THEATRICAL.—The play of "The Drunkard" on Tuesday night last, was witnessed by a very respectable audience, and we heard a number of those who saw the play, speak in high praise of the manner of its execution. Miss Edith Mitchell and Mr. Waldron fully sustain their position as "stars" of the profession in every piece they play, while the entire troupe of supporters cannot be excelled as stock actors; hence, those who attend their fetes have the assurance of being well entertained, whether the house is large or small.—To-night the great prize tragedy of "Jack Cade, or the Bondman of Kent," will be performed. This is a new piece on this stage, and a grand and beautiful one too; many of the scenes in this tragedy are indeed thrilling and soul-stirring, and we doubt not will be well received. Let a full house add interest to the occasion.

We are informed that the experiment with the Columbia river coal was perfectly satisfactory. It produces as much gas as any coal found on the coast, but does not make coke.

The Board of Foreman of the Portland Fire Department will meet at the House of V. H. & L. Co. this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock.

By order of the Chief Engineer,
T. B. TREVETT, Clerk of the Board.

Third—Of cross walks within and on the boundaries of all the streets to be improved as aforesaid, to be constructed of plank, said cross walks to be not less than five feet in width; said cross walks shall not be raised above the level of the road way more than one thickness of plank, and the edges of the planks next the road way shall be beveled down.

Sec. 3. That all plank used for the construction of road ways and cross walks in the above named streets, shall be at least three inches in thickness, shall not exceed one foot in width, and shall have square edges.

That all plank used for the construction of side walks shall be at least two inches in thickness shall not exceed eight inches in width and shall have square edges; and all material used to be of good merchantable quality.

Sec. 4. The road ways on all the above named streets shall be constructed on the same plan as the road way on Front Street between Stark and Washington streets, with a gutter on either side twelve inches wide in the clear, the bottom plank of said gutters to be eighteen inches wide and three inches thick, the planks for the road ways to be laid on a sufficient number of good substantial sawed sleepers.

All bids for any portion of the work provided to be done under this ordinance shall be for such portion of street as lies between the centre of street and the center of street, except where the bid is for such portion of the streets herein named as is a starting or ending point, in accordance with the sections as laid off by the committee on streets and public property.—All contracts shall be awarded by the Common Council, the original contract and bond filed with the Clerk, and all work done under or by virtue of this ordinance shall be completed and finished by the fifteenth (15) day of September, A. DR. D. JAYNES'
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG and found in high general favor in every region of country where they have been sold (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost unnecessary at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is but due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who in this changeable climate of the Pacific Coast suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been used in relieving complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the bowels and giving healthy tone to the other internal organs, admirably assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors.

Morning.

Along the east, where late the dark impended,
A dusky gleam is born;
The watches of the night are ended,
And heaven foretells the morn!

The hills of home, no longer huddled together
In one wide blotch of night,
Lift up their heads through misty ether,
Distinct in rising light.

Then, after pangs of darkness slowly dying,
O'er the delivered world
Comes Morn, with every banner flying
And every sail unfurled!

So long the night, so chill, so blank and dreary,
I thought the sun was dead;
But yonder burn his beacons cheery
On peaks of cloudy red!

And yonder fly his scattered golden arrows,
And smite the hills with day,
While Night her dark dominion narrows
And westward wheels away.

A sweeter air revives the new creation,
The dews are tears of bliss;
And Earth, in amorous palpitation,
Receives her bridegroom's kiss.

Bathed in the morning, let my heart [illegible]
The doubts that darkness gave,
And rise to meet the advancing splendor—
O night! no more thy slave.

I breathe at last, thy gloomy reign forgetting,
Thy weary watches done;
Thy last pale star behind me setting,
The freedom of the sun!

The National Sanitary Efforts.

[From a Wisconsin paper.]

MR. EDITOR.—In listening to the lecture of Capt. Bellows last evening, my feelings reminded me very much of the stories of the old war-horse, which would rush back to the battle on the sound of the drum or the roar of artillery. I was reminded of so much of what I had seen, that I felt much like telling my own experience with the National Sanitary Commission:

When I went to the field I found a large proportion of the surgeons, for some cause which I have not learned, opposed to the Commission. It of course took me but a little while to become strongly prejudiced and bitterly opposed. Every agent sent to inspect us was made the subject of not very flattering remarks. Every pamphlet which they issued was hypercriticised. Last winter a number of surgeons met in my tent—the Commission soon became our subject—something must be written against it, and I must do it. I was full of the subject, and threw into my article all the force I could command. Just as I was finishing it the sound of artillery came booming over the land; heavier and heavier grew the roar—a courier arrived—a battle is fought at Drainsville. The surgeons dispersed to collect appliances for the wounded. The sufferers in the battle began to arrive. We had scarcely anything they needed. The noise of the battle had been heard in Washington, and by the time the wounded were undressed in came those Sanitary agents with the very articles of comfort which the Government had failed to supply. I laid the article I had written in my trunk, thinking I would finish it "at a more convenient season."

Time passed on, and we found ourselves on the Peninsula. In the haste of moving, most of the appliances of comfort had been left behind. For weeks we were almost wholly destitute of medicines, or any articles of diet for the sick. The battle of Lee's Mills commenced on the 10th of April, and continued through the next day. What should I do? I was almost without medicine, notwithstanding that from day to day I had been striving for weeks to procure it. But just then was discovered a number of "those sanitary chaps, who are prying into everybody's business." Somehow or other they had the very things we needed. That night, after having finished my labors with the wounded, I went to my trunk, took out that article "on the Sanitary," and read a few lines. It did not read as well as I thought it would; so I raised a garment and put it under, where it would not stare me in the face every time I looked in.

The battle of Williamsburg followed, and before the smoke of the battle had blown away, right along side of our army lay one of those ever present sanitary steamers, freighted not only with necessaries but with luxuries for the sick and wounded. They had only to be asked for and they were distributed without limit. Another shirt was thrown over my article to "Mr. Editor."

I was in charge of Liberty Hall Hospital at the time of the battle of Hanover Court House. Here both the sick and the wounded were crowded on me. Five hundred were piled in at one time. I had not a bed, not a dozen blankets, not a cooking utensil and nothing to cook. In vain did I appeal to the medical director, in vain did he appeal to higher authority. The necessaries of life even were not to be had. I begged, I plead—no use. In a few days after the battle, on the breaking up of other hospitals, the wounded who could not be sent to a distant hospital were sent to me, and some of them in the most loathesome condition, their wounds gangrenous and alive with worms. Again I appealed for means of comfort, and now with such importunity that I was threatened with dismissal from the service. I procured a pass to the White House, twenty-four miles away. There I found the Sanitary boats. I told the Commission the story of the soldiers' sufferings. Hundreds of clean sheets, blankets, bed sacks and pillows were packed in less time than it needs to read this article. Boxes of condensed milk, farina, army soup, tea, coffee, sugar, oranges and lemons, were sent off with astonishing celerity. When I departed, there was not a single State represented in that hospital, but found an article which bore the marks of his home. New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, all were there, both with their soldiers and contributions.

As I led one poor fellow, from Pennsylvania, to his bed, and he read upon a cover of the clean white sheet the name of both his family and home, the convulsive sobs with which he shook that building, could they have been heard in the streets of Milwaukee, would have shook coppers from heads which now spit venom at the soldiers. That whole hospital wept, and as I took my paper and put it in the very bottom of my trunk, I noticed that somehow a few watery spots had fallen among the lines.

On the retreat, in the seven days fight, every mile of the march gave evidence of a presence, which moved in its charities, always ahead of the Government.

The army arrived at Harrison's Landing. The sick had been sent ahead of us. In this connection I state but a single case in illustration. A young man from Milwaukee, in whom I felt a great interest, was found, after a long hunt, in an ambulance. He was spitting black bile, and had all the symptoms of an approaching attack of yellow fever. Government transports were at the wharf, taking on the wounded. I had the ambulance driven to the river, and asked a place for the young man. It was denied, the transports were only to take the wounded. "But he is in more danger than hundreds of the wounded?" "Our orders are peremptory. We take only the wounded." Thirty hours here would be certain death. What could I do? I succeeded in getting to a transport which the Sanitary Commission had. I appealed to them. "We have only two hundred and forty on board—we will take him." He was sent to his home, and does the mother of that young man ever enter the Sanitary rooms without shedding tears of joy and thankfulness to that Commission?—without feeling that the means for furnishing the conveyance were, perhaps, drawn from the funds of other States?

I pass over other scenes of suffering relieved which I witnessed at South Mountain, Crampton's Gap, Antietam and Fredericksburg.

At Antietam I took the paper from the bottom of my trunk, and lest I might see it again I burned it, and now declare on my word of honor that I never wrote it, and that I will never do so again. SCIENTIST.

ANOTHER LETTER OF LORD LYONS.—A letter from Lord Lyons has made its appearance in the British Blue Book. It was written on the 13th of January, and contains some pretty shrewd observations on American affairs. He says:

The democratic party seeks to profit by the difficulties of its opponents, without committing itself to any very definite policy. Thus it attacks the arbitrary arrests, and the other extra-legal measures of the Cabinet, and, above all, the military administration; but it does not risk its own popularity by declaring against the war, or pronouncing the word separation. Its leaders know that it is felt to be the peace party, and that it really gets all the votes of those who desire peace. They will not incur the danger of losing other votes by avowing a desire for peace themselves. They desire to throw on the republicans all the responsibility of any unpopular measures which may become necessary. Foreign mediation is not likely to be acceptable to the people at large; and the democrats would be very glad to escape all share of the unpopularity of having recourse to it.

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And certain sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq. of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, ESQ., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,
ORLANDO SHELBY, OF SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use, and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, and Pains arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER,

Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
